POPULAR PULSE-BEATS.

(S. F. Chronicle.)

Governor Underwood, of Kentucky, a close friend of Speaker Carlisle, says Carlisle interprets his election as implying a wish of the majority of the Democratic party for "an aggressive policy." He will organize the House committees on this idea. That is to say, the Committees of Ways and Means and of Appropriations will be stocked with tariff reformers and the Chairmen of both will be free traders of the Calhoun type. Another dispatch, referring to Randall's defeat, says the Democracy of Charleston and South Carolina take heart at it and the party there is stronger than ever. They understand that it means a return of the party to its anti-protection principles of old, when Calhoun, McDuffie, Toombs and Jeff Davis from their seats in the Senate dictated to the national Democracy and shaped the policy of the party.

On the other hand, we hear from Philadelphia that the Times newspaper—for years Democratic, but independently so—regards the election of Carlisle as a calamity to the party, and is now shaping its course toward a support of the Republican nominee for President next year. The Philadelphia Times is the leading Democratic paper in Pennsylvania, and if it goes over to the Republicans that State will give over 100,000 majority for the Republican nominee next November. It is only six months since Pennsylvania was classed among the doubtful States. Leading Republicans at Washington are now saying that New York, Ohio, New Jersey and Connecticut—all doubtful States—will support the Presidential candidate who favors protection. In other words, the election of Carlisle as Speaker on a free-trade programme has made these States sure for the Republicans next November. We concur in this opinion. The greatest manufacturing city on the continent is New York. It cannot afford to support any party that endangers the principle of protection. The States of New Jersey, Connecticut and Ohio are similarly interested in the defeat of the Carlisle programme. And when the country shall have had a month's time to think over and trace it to its logical results the 106 members of the House who indorsed it with such lusty "Kentucky cheers" will see that they blundered and threw away all the bright prospects the party had three months ago of electing the next President.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

THE "JOURNAL'S" ILLUSTRATED ANNUAL FOR 1884

In accordance with its usual custom the JOURNAL will present its subscribers with a Holiday present of the JOURNAL Annual for the year 1884, with fifty illustrations on wood, chiefly by Granville Perkins, Thos. Moran, Harry Penn, and other celebrated American artists. The Annual will also contain a calendar; and its table of contents will embrace an exceedingly interesting and varied assortment of miscellany; also choice selections of poetry; besides much practical knowledge, pertaining to the household.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

What is Being Said and Done in a Small Way.

Senator Williams, of Nye, has gone East.

There are five patients in the county hospital.

Frank Boskowitz, the jolly drummer, was in town yesterday.

Judge Boardman will leave this morning on a short trip to tide-water.

The Junior Hose Company made $80 from their dance Thanksgiving night.

John Duvall, proprietor of Franktown's leading hotel, was in town yesterday.

A larger number than ever of ladies will receive New Year's. And '84 will be leap year, too.

Alvaro Evans, W. R. Chamberlain and C. T. Bender, are inspecting the Pyramid bonanza.

Tom Barnett deserves and should receive a severe reprimand. Ask him the reason why.

The only room at the Court House at the present time that presents any show of life is the county jail.

The Autumn operations of the Sierra Nevada Wood & Flume Company are nearly closed.

The young ladies are busily preparing for their masquerade ball to be given New Year's night.

It is thought thirty prisoners will make application for pardon at the January meeting of the Board.

Everybody talks of going to Holesworth & Fulmer's social to-night at Kimball's Hall. Good music.

Roadmaster Atherton, of the V. T., was in town yesterday, to see if this section was in good order for Winter.

Col. Pete Cavanaugh has become permanently located in business with Cartan, McCarthy & Co., in San Francisco.

The Sentinel says that as soon as the weather will permit several parties in Eureka will emigrate to the Coeur d'Alene mines.

The Elko Independent says that over 10,000 head of beef cattle were shipped to market from that county during the past year.

The regular stated meeting of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., will take place Saturday evening, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

It would not be a bad idea to convey the rocks that are now being dug out of the streets to some convenient place where they can be broken up by prisoners and at some future time carted back on to the streets.

Day before yesterday the connection was safely made between the uprise and the old workings in the Pyramid mine. Although there was considerable water in the shaft it found its way out without doing much if any damage.

The Republican says True kee is duller than it has been at any time since the fire of August 23, 1881, and the worst of it is that the indications are that it will be duller before it will be livelier.

Last of the Mohicans.

Some years ago at the cross roads near J. C. Smith's ranch, south of Reno, there was established by a quartette of young gentlemen a habitation which was christened and has ever since been known by the significant sobriquet of "Bachelor's Roost." As the years rolled by these susceptible young bachelors were one by one persuaded to forewear a life of single cussedness and to join the grand and noble army of bachelors. The last of the crew took the oath of allegiance in the new army at the residence of William Warren, a few miles south of town, last Wednesday, a notice of which will be found under the appropriate head of marriages. The victim in this instance and the last to forsake the old bachelor habitation was W. H. Haynes, and the lady who wrought in him this change of heart, and who will accompany him through life in the new order of things, is Miss Fannie T. Warren. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hatch, of Reno. After the ceremony was performed J. C. Haynes, a brother of the groom, presented the bride with an elegantly finished broom, and in a neat speech explained to her the double purpose for which it was intended—the brush to keep the dust and cob-webs from the floor, and the handle to do duty in case the husband becomes neglectful of his marital duties. Turning to the groom he feelingly pointed to the dangers liable to be encountered in navigating the turbulent waters of the unknown sea of matrimony, and after giving a few wholesome words of advice presented him with an accident insurance policy of $5,000, good for twenty-four hours. Thus passes away the glory of the old "roost." Beneath the old dilapidated sign hangs a new one, dressed in mourning and bearing the simple yet expressive sentence, "all gone."

Elko County Cattle.

The Independent says "that Elko county embraces within its borders a greater area of grazing lands than any other in the State, is made apparent by the vast number of beef cattle annually shipped from Wells, Halleck, this place and other points along the line of the railroad in the county. But these do not cover all sent to market from within our lines, a large number being yearly driven from our Northern ranges and shipped by rail from points beyond the county limits. Many large herds of both cattle and horses are also driven Eastward, and sold at Cheyenne, which are not mentioned in the list of shipments. From Messrs. Horn & Chapman, one of the heavy stock dealing firms doing business in this county, we learn that their shipments alone during the present season has amounted to 4,400 head. Russell & Bradley, E. P. Hardesty, Scott & Hank, Mason & Bradley, Byrne Bros. and numbers of others are heavy stock raisers and buyers and the shipments of these parties and others not mentioned, will probably swell the number of beef cattle sent from the county during the present season to 10,000 head."

Not Good.

The County Commissioners have notified Treasurer Nevitt that upon examination of his official bond said Board has decided that the following named persons are insufficient as sureties, not having sufficient property within the State of Nevada, to-wit: William Woodburn, $5,000; B. Burke, $3,000; F. Monahan, $1,000; Thomas Heffron, $2,000; M. M. Donough, $1,000; John Cavanaugh, $1,000; Con Sullivan, $1,000; R. T. Brodek, $1,000; T. Tally, $1,000; Dan. Nowlan, $2,500; R. P. Keating, $5,000; D. L. Brown, $1,000; A. Beiso, $1,000; J. G. Legris, $1,000; Joan Cox, $1,500; L. F. J. Wrinkle, $2,000; M. O'Shea, $1,000; S. Hirsch, $1,000, and Titus Jepson, $2,500.

The Treasurer was required to appear before the Board next Monday, and show cause why he should not execute an additional bond in the sum of $35,500.

Wedding Bells.

Miss Mary L. Pierson and Mr. Frank Godbe, of Pioche, held a wedding reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Janies Pierson, Pioche, Monday evening, December 10th. The Piersons formerly resided at Washoe City, and have many old friends in this section. Miss Mary attended the School for Girls a few years ago. Mrs. Pierson is one of the noblest and best women in this State, and the daughter is as handsome and as good as her mother. Mr. Frank Godbe is a fortunate man to obtain such a wife and mother-in-law, and all concerned have the JOURNAL's best wishes for a long life of health, happiness and wealth.

Constable Mike Shields brought up from Wadsworth yesterday morning a prisoner named McKelury, who was sent to the county jail for 90 days for selling whiskey to Indians.

The Princess in New York.

Sallie Winnemucca is lecturing in New York City, and a short time ago held forth to a large audience in Dr. Sabine's church. The New York Mail, a journal of high standing has this to say of her: "Although Princess Winnemucca, who spoke in Dr. Sabine's church last evening wears a picturesque Indian costume—a deerskin dress with bead trimming, red leather leggings, moccasins, and a handsomely embroidered pouch at her waist—she is a woman of culture and resides with her husband, Mr. Lewis A. Hopkins, in a pleasant home in Baltimore. Her grandfather was the great Piute chief and the friend of John C. Fremont. She is about forty years of age, and Mr. Hopkins lived thirteen years with her tribe before taking her to Baltimore. Beside her plea that the Piutes be restored to their former home in Nevada, she urges that women be appointed as Indian agents instead of men, and she is an impressive advocate of her cause."

No Excuse.

Judge Noah Davis once declared from the bench that drink is no excuse for crime—that a man is responsible for getting drunk. Nevada law makers have said the same thing, yet it is a notorious fact that juries and sometimes judges take a different view of the case. Men who are naturally vicious when under the influence of whisky, usually get drunk with malice aforethought, and should therefore be held to a strict accountability for any unlawful act committed while in that condition. This doctrine should be generally adopted and vigorously enforced in the punishment of criminals. It is seldom that a murder is committed without the use of drink to nerve the murderer for his deed, and to excuse crime on account of drunkenness is to sweep away the penalties for the most heinous offenses. Everywhere it ought to be understood that drink will not excuse crime.

Compromise Talk.

In referring to the suit between the Northern Belle and the Holmes Mining Companies, the Hawthorne Bulletin says everybody thought the matter was settled, but it appears that both parties had a doubt whether the Court which tried the case had jurisdiction, as there was no question of construction of Federal laws. It is, however, possible that a compromise will be effected and that the mines will be worked together. In that case Candelaria will see better times than ever.

Humboldt Places.

L. F. Dunn informs the Silver State that there are seventy five or eighty Chinamen working placer mines about ten miles south of Unionville. These mines are known to have produced over $1,000,000 in gold dust, and are by no means worked out yet. There is, and always was, a scarcity of water in the camp, which has been a great drawback to the profitable working of the mines.

Masquerade Ball.

The E. and M. Library Association, of Wadsworth, will give a grand masquerade ball on Friday evening, January 4th, 1884. J. R. Garcia, J. C. Erb and T. J. On the Mend.

Hugh Dean, the young man who was accidentally shot through the thighs by a fellow passenger on the train at Iron Point, about a month ago, and was brought to Reno and provided quarters in the county hospital, if he has no bad luck, will soon be able to get out. He has had a tough time of it, but the wounds are now healing nicely.

Travel in Idaho

The Idaho papers say that through all the mountain regions of that Territory stage coaches have given place to sleighs with their merry, tinkling bells. The stages from Winnemucca to Boise go on runners from Trout nearly to Boise City.

Holiday Goods

Our merchants are receiving large quantities of goods suitable for holiday presents. There are several handsome displays which are particularly attractive to the ladies.

A number of young ladies met at the house of a friend on the south side of the river Wednesday evening and organized an amateur minstrel troupe, and it is said that after a little practice and they shall have become a little more proficient in the art of applying burnt cork they will give a public exhibition.

Lots of Wood.

Citce & Spooner have taken a contract to cut 10,000 cords of wood for Billy Price, off of his timber tract four miles back of Ophir, and have a force of forty-five men at work. Citce says it will take them all Winter to finish the job. Price's timber tract is estimated to be good for 80,000 cords of wood, and after the 10,000 are cut, Citce says he will keep right on, and calculates it will take fifty men six years to get it all out.

It was stated in an item in the JOURNAL yesterday morning that the earnings of the State Prison for the month of November came within $424 of covering the expenses of the institution. This was an error. What was intended to be said was, that the Warden had collected and turned into the Treasury within $424 of as much coin as it cost to run the institution for that month.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Roma Union Mining Company will be held at the office of the Company, 525 Commercial street, San Francisco, Cal., on Friday, the 28th day of December, at the hour of 8 o'clock, P. M.
